Personal Membership Categories

Registered Member

This category of membership, the entry level to the MLA, is suitable for all levels of experience, from those totally new to the industry (haven't undertaken training yet but interested to do so) to locksmiths who have been working in the industry for years but have not yet passed the MLA or ALA exam.

Whilst training is not required, continuous professional development is recommended and encouraged by the MLA by offering discounted rates for registered members.

Membership Progression

The MLA require all Registered Members to work towards progressing to "Qualified Master Locksmith" membership by sitting and passing the MLA exam (former BLI exam). All four modules have to be completed (written, fitting, key cutting by hand and opening) in order to progress to QML. Registered Members are given a maximum of 4 years to pass the exam (and recommend that one module is taken per year) however experienced locksmiths can complete all modules at any time.

Important Note: Registered Members may claim membership of the Master Locksmiths Association, but such claims must not be used in any form of advertising other than the members own website, and where used on their website must be clear as to their category of membership. Registered Members are not entitled to use the Logo, in any form on their own behalf. Neither can it, or any reference to their membership, be used in any form on their behalf by an employer, unless the employer is itself an Approved Company. (See the MLA's Bylaws for full details)

Qualified Master Locksmith

This category of membership is dedicated to locksmiths who have passed the MLA (former BLI) or ALA Exam.

Membership Progression

QML members who are self employed are encouraged to progress to Approved Company Membership; the only category of membership which offers full use of logo (on vans, websites, shops etc) and your own page on the MLA's coveted find-a-locksmith website www.locksmiths.co.uk.

Important Note: Qualified Master Locksmiths may claim membership of the Master Locksmiths Association on their own website, and where used on their website must be clear as to their category of membership. Members are entitled to use of the logo on business stationary and corporate wear

MLA EXAM

It is now a requirement that all registered members (those who were previously student members, advanced student members or associated locksmiths) must take and pass the MLA exam within 4 years of membership. It is recommended for new members this is done at a rate of 1 exam module per 12 months of membership in order to allow you time to concentrate on one aspect of the exam at a time and not cause too much stress, but the ultimate deadline is all 4 modules within 4 years.

The Examination Consists of 4 Parts:

1. Written Paper - Time allowed 1 hr

50 short questions of which some may require a sketch. The questions will be a broad spectrum of locksmithing, including safes, access control and lever & pin tumbler mechanisms. (The written paper may be undertaken at a regional meeting, at the discretion of the examination board and by prior arrangement with Headquarters.)

2. Practical - Open a BS 5 Lever Mortice Lock - Time allowed ¾ hr

The lock will be one in common use and can be opened by drilling or manipulation. If opened by drilling, then a maximum 7-8mm single hole is allowed and you'll need to identify the lock in order to pass. If a 6mm hole is drilled then you can pass without having to identify the lock. Marks will be awarded for correct identification together with the level of skill demonstrated.

3. Practical - Fit a Euro Mortice Deadlock to a Door - Time allowed 1¾ hrs

You will be required to fit a Euro Cylinder Operated Deadlock with Security Escutcheons and Box Striker to a door. This is a test of your carpentry skills and lock-fitting jigs will not be allowed. Please be aware striker plate must be fully fitted in order to pass. Marks will be awarded according to the level of skill demonstrated.

4. Cut a Stepped (Lever) Key - Time allowed 1 hr

You will be required to make a key to a detainer lock on the bench. Basic facilities are available, such as vices and blanks but you are to provide the hand tools required to complete the task. This is a test of bench skills i.e. using hand tools, not machines. Key and lever reading type gauges (e.g. depth keys or step gauges) are not allowed although Vernier callipers can be used. Your key must be of sufficient standard to operate the lock using your usual method of finishing. The lock must work with the original key on completion. Your step cuts and spacing must be a faithful reproduction of the manufacturers' original with particular regard to stepped heights, spacing, finish and radius.
